

It is said that our last will and testament is the final “love letter” we will ever write. It states our final wishes and reveals what was most important to us in this life. While we encourage you to review your planning with your financial advisors, here is a simple suggestion on how you can include the ministry of LOGOI in your “love letter.”

A SIMPLE BEQUEST

Will and estate planning does not need to be complicated or expensive. For most of us, we simply need to state our wishes in our will or revocable trust. For example:

“I bequeath (percentage) of my estate to LOGOI,” or

“I bequeath $ (dollar amount) to LOGOI,” or

“I bequeath (shares of stock, property, assets, etc.) to LOGOI.”

Although you cannot take a current income tax deduction for a Simple Bequest, there can be significant federal estate tax savings when your estate is settled. You can give almost any kind of asset in your bequest, you just need to specifically indicate your wishes. If your plans or circumstances change, simply revise or update your will.

So we joyfully and boldly encourage you to include the ministry of LOGOI in your will and estate planning. Just consider what you would like to write in your last love letter. And here is a wonderful reminder from God’s Word:

“Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work” (2 Corinthians 9:7-8).

THANK YOU FOR PRAYERFULLY CONSIDERING ADDING LOGOI TO YOUR WILL AND ESTATE PLANNING. MAY WE ALL BE VERY CHEERFUL GIVERS.
